ket continues to be depressed owing to fears of tighter money and to the industrial crisis in Germany. Arbitrage houses were moderate volume owing to the extreme narrowness of the market for Americans in London. Prices were somewhat irregular, the railroads as a rule showing considerable strength, with Union Pacific the feature, while the industrials were inclined to heaviness. People's Gas was notably weak on heavy selling which was supposed to come from Chicago. The publication of a dispatch from Butte stating that the Amalgamated Copper Company was curtailing the production of copper materially resulted in liquidation in that There was a fair amount of sup-St. Paul should move together but to-day, in spite of the strength of Union Pacific. Contradictory View. [Granger Farwell & Co.'s Telegram.] NEW YORK, Nov. 4 .- The market tothere was evidence of good buying all day. There was no news of importance, but traders generally took the bull side, and while prices were not bid up a great deal, still they were held up all day long. The Pacifics were well bought and the steel stocks were strong. The close was strong at about best prices of the day and a good deal of covering. The leader of the market was Union Pacific, and talk of 120 for it was in the air. Confidence is growing that a favorable announcement on Northern Pacific will be forthcoming before Wednesday and much greater interest will be manifested if these rumors become
